October 27, 2020

On the evening of October 27th, Fred Schiffbauer went home to be with the lord. His sudden passing has left his family and friends heartbroken, yet we know he is at peace and has entered into rest.

Fred was born February 12, 1939 in Omaha, Nebraska. Fred grew up in Omaha where he raised his family and had a very successful painting business. Fred could either be found working tirelessly painting, working on and around his home and making sure his family was loved and well cared for.

Fred served in the United States Marine Corp Reserve and his dedication to the Corp and his country were sources of immense pride. Fred loved sports and especially was a fan of horse racing.

Fred was married to Peg Schiffbauer until her passing in 2018. Together they raised their sons Jerry and Michael and their daughter Michelle.

In 2006, Fred and Peg moved to Lancaster, South Carolina where they fell in love with the South and the community of Lancaster. Fred remained active with the Marine Reserves and could often be found serving others. It was in service to others that Fred found great joy.

Fred's son Michael predeceased him in 2012. Fred leaves behind his son Jerry and his wife Pamela, granddaughter Morgan and great granddaughter Skyler Raine Baker, grandson Leonard Frederick and his wife Lesley, great granddaughter, Elizabeth Marie Frederick, and great grandson Ian Ruble. Fred was a unique, kind and caring man. He touched hearts wherever he went and never met a stranger. He shared his love and kindness more freely than most and will always be remembered for his dedication to others and his love of the Lord.

“ Fred and I went to Windsor Grade School together and we graduated in June, 1953. One incident I especially remember was getting into a wrestling match in the school play ground with Fred and Gary Dross. When I would get on top of one or the other, the other would pull me off. Eventually we tired of the match and quit. I was outnumbered two to one.

“ Fred and Peg were are first friends when we moved to Lancaster in 2007 and were close friends from day 1. John and Fred were especially close. The very best of friends from start to finish, so to speak.

Fred was such a beautiful person. He was so cheerful and friendly, kind and sensative, empathetic, fun-loving, reliable, and hard working. Very down to earth and open, so easy to be with. Very good company! He really loved people. He showed forth his faith in so many ways. He was quick to help anyone with anything that he could. Fred was a dear soul and a dear friend and I celebrate the life of our Fred, and count myself blessed to have the privilage of being among Fred's close friends.

He loves his churches, Open Door and Carolinas Cowboy Church. Fred was a faithful follower of Jesus Christ. I believe God is saying well done!

To Jerry and family and Heidi, I am so very sorry for your loss. His passing came as a complete surprise to us, but I am thankful that he went peacefully. I will miss his light in this world, but it was his time to join our Savior. I pray the Lord comforts you and the family by His Holy Spirit and the knowledge that Fred was born again, because we know that unless one is born again, we cannot see the kingdom of God. I loved your folks. I'm so blessed to have known them.

My condolences to all. This is not goodbye, my dear Brother.
